

Drawings

Grațiela Ghergu

25.02.2020

Contents

I	Grandfathers	4
II	Oldtimer	5
III	Flowers	6
IV	Sisters	7
V	Museum	8
VI	Summer	9
VII	Portret of the artist as a young girl	10
VIII	The living room	11
IX	Horsing around	12
X	Joy	13
XI	Sleeping beauty	14
XII	The musician	15
XIII	Hubby	16
XIV	Uncle	17
XV	Female boxer	18

XVI	Birdie	19
XVII	Tulips	20
XVIII	Budha	21
XIX	Autoportret	22
XX	Pretty Lady	23
XXI	Abstract	24
XXII	Frida	25
XXIII	Friends	26
XXIV	The kiss	27
XXV	Learning	28
XXVI	Doggie	29
XXVII	Dancers	30
XXVIII	Projector	31
XXIX	Windmill	32
XXX	Abstract	33

Part I

Grandfathers

My grandfathers side by side. The one on the left is the father of my father and the one on the right is the father of my mother. They both fought in the Second World War and had very vivid memories from those times. Both of them knew how to sew pelts. Both liked to drink and both loved their grandchildren. One was poor and the other one rich. One was slim, the other one fat. One would tell us children stories, the other would give us money. One would smoke, the other one not. They died shortly one after the other.

Figure 1: Grandparents

Part II

Oldtimer

Shakey car that I would love to drive. I don't have a driving license, but I would take one if I get to drive this kind of funny looking car. Call me old fashioned.

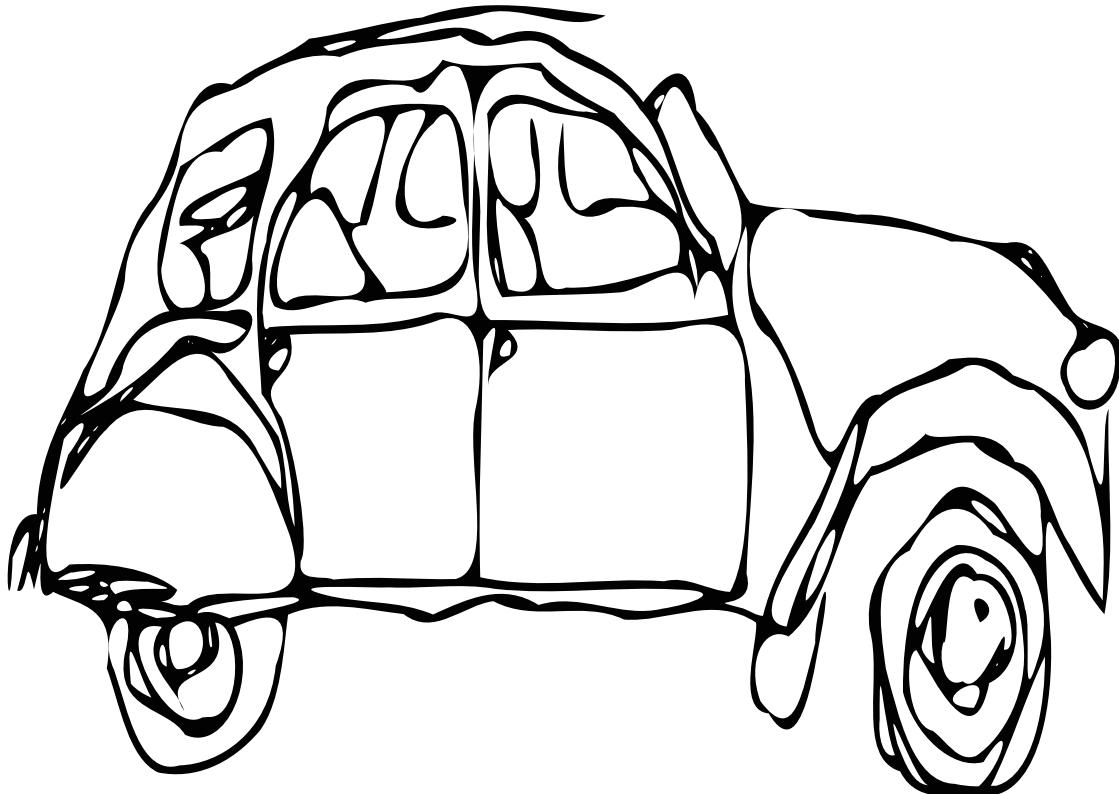

Figure 2: Oldtimer

Part III

Flowers

Flowers and butterflies showing us what we are missing so badly in winter times.

Figure 3: Flowers

Part IV

Sisters

My grandmother when she was young together with her older sister. I didn't meet her sister but based on this picture I can say they were close to each other. My grandmother was just a village girl, without too much school but she was natively very smart and she had a strong character and admirable work ethic. She also sang beautifully.

Figure 4: Sisters

Part V

Museum

A good friend of mine visited a museum once and found a picture of a beautiful girl dressed as a maid. The colour of his t-shirt was matching the girl's dress.

Figure 5: Museum

Part VI

Summer

My mother, my grandmother, my brother and me as a little girl in the summer time. Every summer holidays we would go for at least a few days to the sea side. My brother would swim as far as he could and I would build sand castels while waiting for him. We would get sometimes blue from cold but we would continue staying close to water. Staying dry was never in our focus.

Figure 6: Summer

Part VII

Portret of the artist as a young girl

Me as a young girl, you can imagine what was in my mind at the time. The important thing is that I enjoyed life which I still do but more consciously.

Figure 7: Youth

Part VIII

The living room

A chair, a guitar, bookshelves, two beanbags, a sofa, a carpet, a small cube to use as a coffee table. All this is a fortune for somebody that likes to spend time in their own world.

Figure 8: Living room

Part IX

Horsing around

There is a horse that is famous on the social networks for the fact that it acts sick when he needs to work. His look shows satisfaction knowing he fooled you again.

Figure 9: Horsing around

Part X

Joy

The expression on my niece's face when she first saw herself wearing a blue wig. The novelty makes them overly enthusiastic.

Figure 10: Joy

Part XI

Sleeping beauty

Maybe she's sad, maybe she's happy, maybe she's just sleeping. For sure she doesn't want to face you and you don't mind this so much.

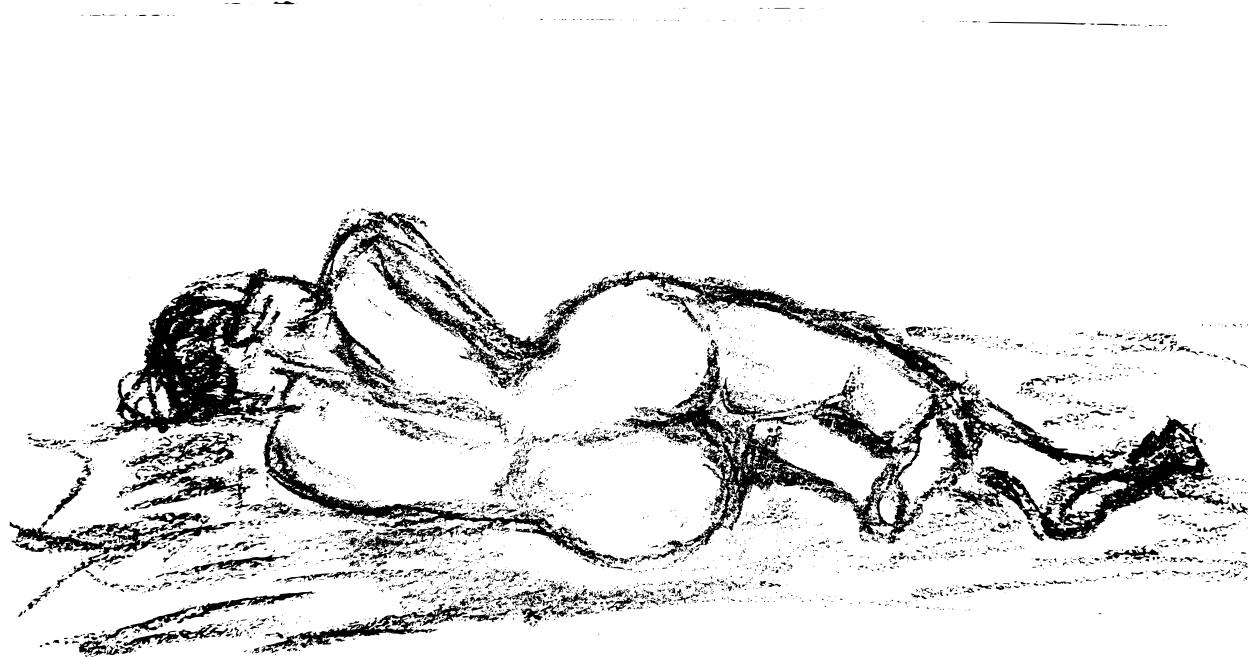

Figure 11: Sleeping beauty

Part XII

The musician

Small bike, big instrument, busy musician.

Figure 12: The musician

Part XIII

Hubby

Very happy with the t-shirt he was wearing. It was a green t-shirt that looked quite nice on him.

Figure 13: Hubby

Part XIV

Uncle

He likes to talk and he has many things to talk about.

Figure 14: Uncle

Part XV

Female boxer

A drawing I made after a photography by INZA JEANO LATIF

Figure 15: Female boxer

Part XVI

Birdie

Berlin Alexanderplatz, the place where I first saw these kind of birds. Their plumage shines with dark green and blue. I learnt they are called starlings. The one I draw is a little chubby, maybe it's just a chick.

Figure 16: Birdie

Part XVII

Tulips

Started to buy regularly flowers for myself. And it's not because I am in love with myself but because I love flowers. I find them very beautiful. I usually photograph them and sometimes I also draw them. Also the vase is a bit special, I found it on the street, but I realized immediately it will be a source of inspiration for me. It's an old ceramic jug for wine.

Figure 17: Tulips

Part XVIII

Budha

Learning to stay calm from a statue of Budha. It's a bit hard to concentrate though because of the window that always offers some new action to watch to.

Figure 18: Budha

Part XIX

Autoportret

This is one of the first autopotrets I made. I like the flirtatious look in my eyes and the background dynamics. It's a fast drawing. I prefer fast drawing because it doesn't give me time to overthink. This is one of the problems I confront myself with in real life. Overthinking can make your life hard because it blocks your abilities to act and take decisions.

Figure 19: Autoportret

Part XX

Pretty Lady

I had a very feminine friend once. She always knew how to add accessories to her clothing like a flower or a scarf. It doesn't take much effort to look pretty.

Figure 20: Pretty lady

Part XXI

Abstract

Just some green scribble.

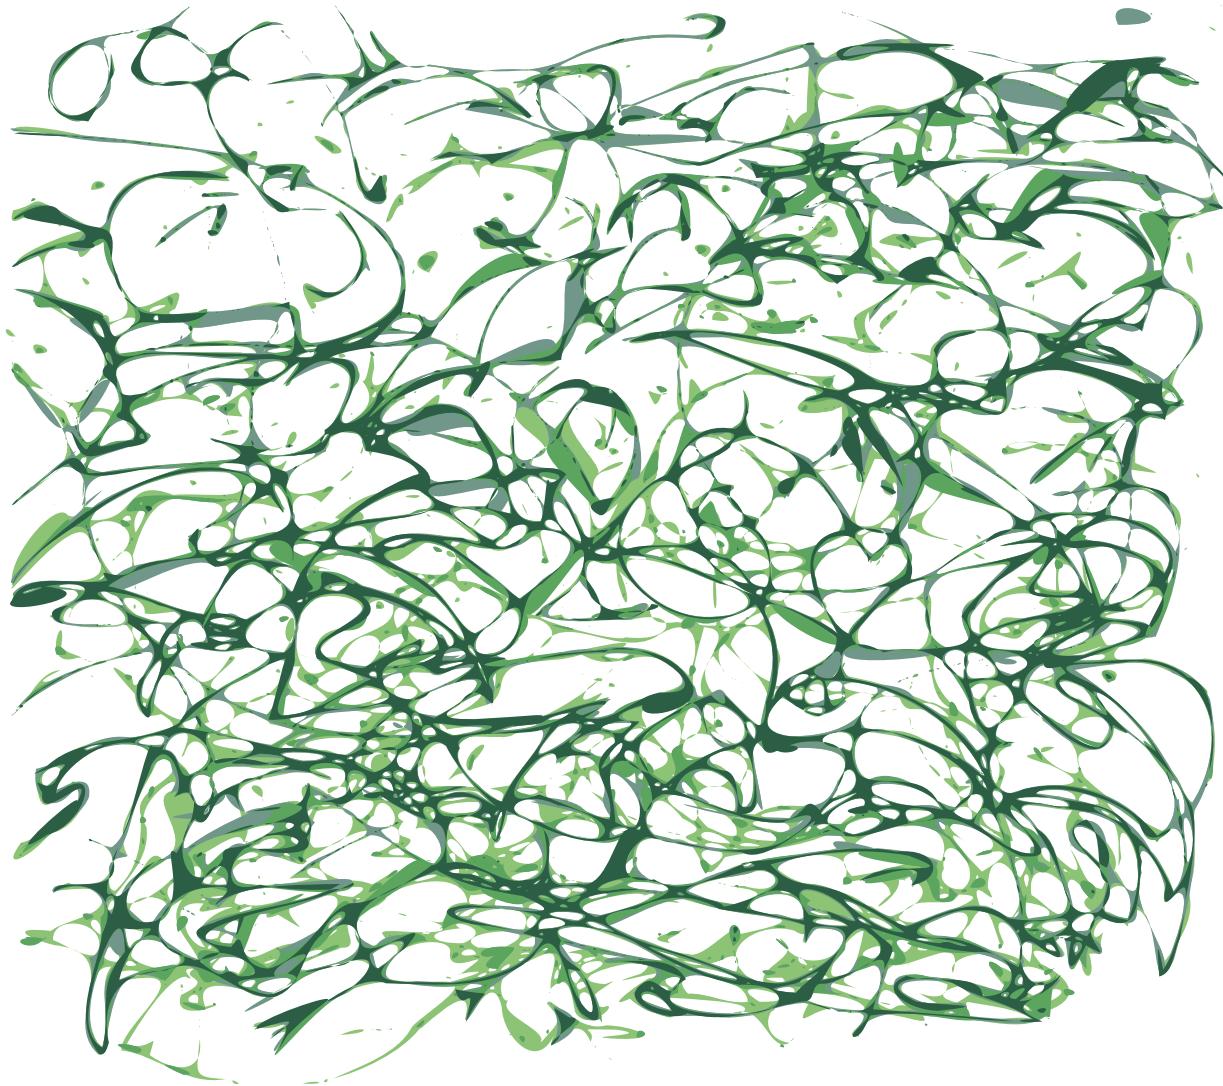

Figure 21: Abstract

Part XXII

Frida

Frida is a famous not only for her paintings but for her fascination personality and life. She is very inspiring to women mostly.

Figure 22: Frida

Part XXIII

Friends

Visiting Sunday fleemarkets in Berlin can be a fun activity especially when you do it with a friend.

Figure 23: Friends

Part XXIV

The kiss

Kisses are sweeter than wine.

Figure 24: The kiss

Part XXV Learning

Figure 25: Learning

Part XXVI

Doggie

Doggie

Figure 26: Doggie

Part XXVII

Dancers

Dancers

Figure 27: Dancers

Part XXVIII Projector

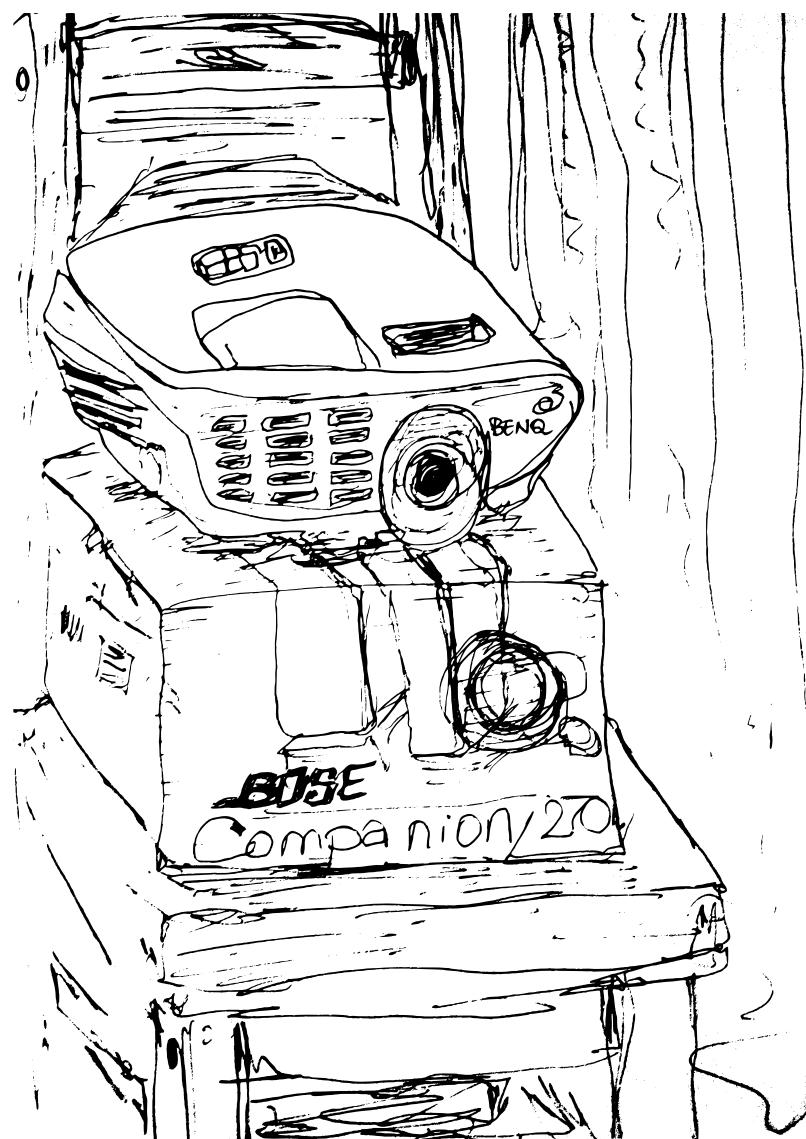

Figure 28: Projector

Part XXIX

Windmill

Figure 29: Windmill

Part XXX

Abstract

Just some green scribble.

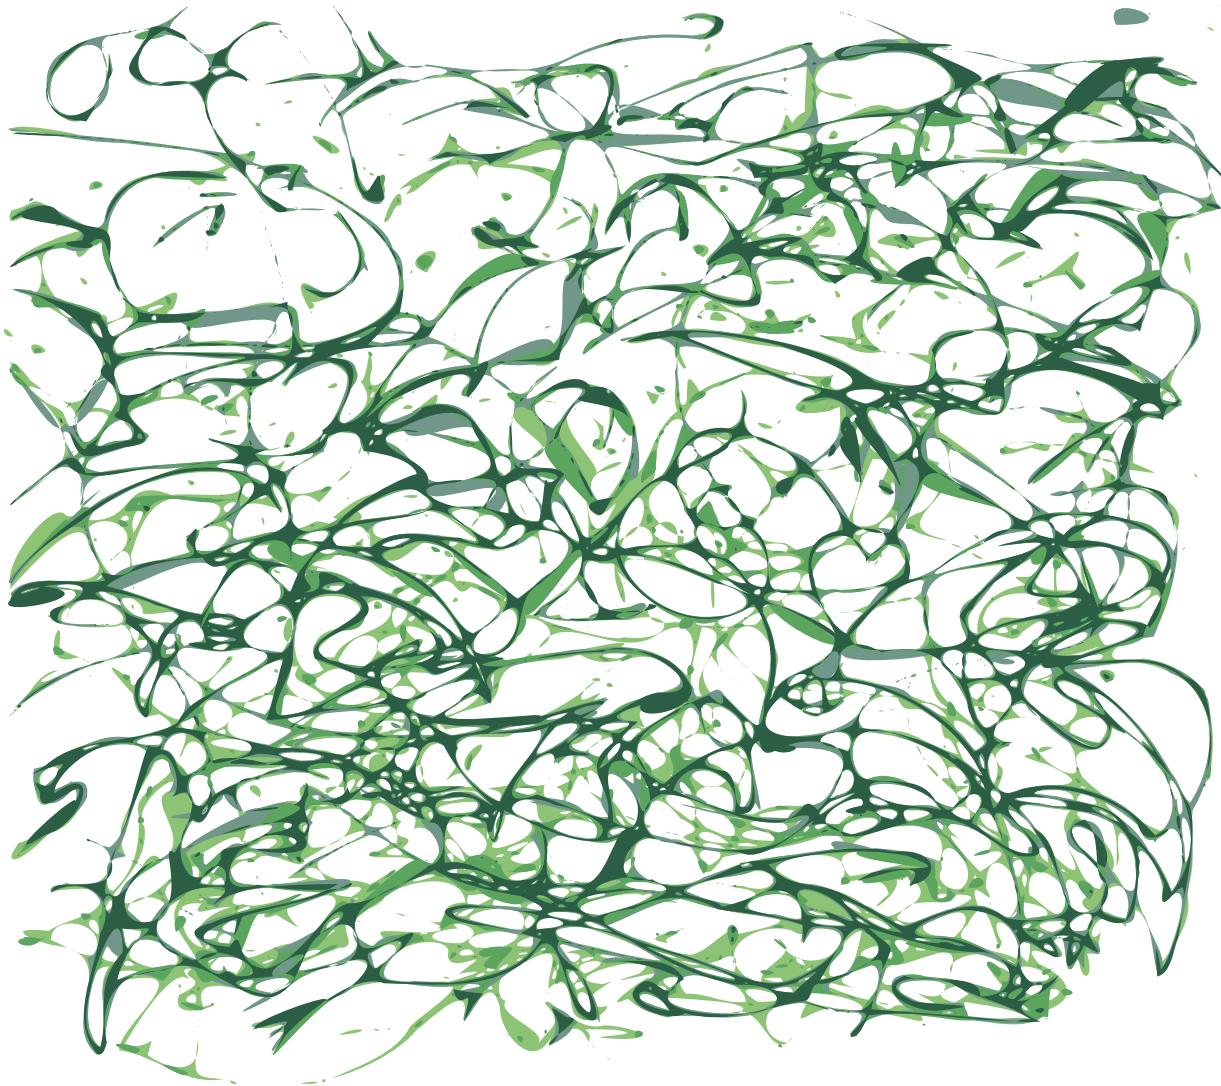

Figure 30: Abstract